

St. Paul's Prays for the Church and the Christian Home
January 22 - January 28, 2023

During the Church Year, we remember in prayer the boards of the church and their programs as well as each of the homes of our congregation. Please take this page and use it in your prayers this week. You may wish to keep it with your devotional materials, or post it in some prominent place in your home to remind you to hold these specific children of God in your prayers.

Sick/Hospitalized (Please note: Hospitalization can be a time of stress in one's life. If you are going into the hospital, please notify the church office so that Pastor can visit with you before or during your hospitalization. The hospitals may not always notify us, so please call the church office if you or a member of your family is hospitalized. Because of Privacy Laws [HIPAA], we are only allowed to publicly list those individuals who request our prayers.)

SPECIAL PRAYER REQUESTS

Received into God's kingdom by Holy Baptism this weekend is Brynn Noelle, daughter of Scott & Elise Styck. We thank God for His grace offered to her and her family and pray every blessing upon them.

We pray in thankfulness for our Lutheran Schools during National Lutheran School Week this week. May God bless all principals, teachers, parents, and students with His love and grace.

We pray for the guidance of God's Holy Spirit as we extend a call to a Principal at our Regular Voter's Meeting on Sunday, December 22nd. We pray for God to guide us to the person that He would want to serve here.

Almighty God, we pray that You bind the evil set loose in our nation. May Your righteousness reign in our country. May all evil and evil ones be exposed and rejected. Bring forth Your sword of justice so that Your justice and peace may reign wherever evil is found. Give us wise and honest leaders that think more of others than they do of themselves.

If you desire prayer, please note your request on one of the Prayer Request forms and place it in the offering plate as it is passed. Your request will be forwarded to our confidential prayer chain. If you are interested in being part of the prayer chain, please contact the church office.

What a privilege to carry everything to God in prayer!"*
