

PHOTO CONSENT

Using a Photograph or Video of a Student, 2023-2024 School Year

Photos of Unnamed Students: students may occasionally appear in photographs and videos taken by school staff members, other students, or other individuals authorized by the principal. The school may use these photos without identifying the student in various publications, including the school yearbook, school newspaper, and school website. No consent or notice is needed or will be given before the school uses photos of unnamed students taken while they are at school or a school-related activity.

Pictures of Named Students: Many times, however, the school will want to identify a student in a school photo. School officials want to acknowledge those students who participate in a school activity or deserve special recognition.

In order for the school to publish a photo with a student identified by name, one of the student's parents or guardians must sign this consent form. Please sign below to allow the school to publish and otherwise use photographs and videos that identify your child while he or she is enrolled in St. Paul's Lutheran School.

Yes, I grant consent to St. Paul's Lutheran School to identify a picture of my child by full name and/or the school he or she attends, in any school sponsored material, publication, video, or website. This consent must be renewed annually while enrolled in St. Paul's Lutheran School. I may revoke this consent at any time by notifying the principal in writing.

No, I DO NOT grant consent to St. Paul's Lutheran School to identify a picture of my child by full name and/or the school he or she attends, in any school sponsored material, publication, video, or website.

Pictures of Students Taken by Non-School Agencies: While the school limits access to the school building to outside photographers, we have no control over news media or other entities that may publish a photo of a named or unnamed student. School staff members will not, however, identify a student for an outside photographer.
